

SGT PAUL DUMONT JR.

The best way to describe Paul is that he was Livin' the DREAM. He loved life and everything it had to offer. He was an amazing son, brother and husband. He was proud to serve this country and he gave the ultimate sacrifice in doing so. He died at the young age of 23 doing what he loved, serving this country. Paul really is the true America Hero. He gave his life for our freedom. He will NEVER be FORGOTTEN!! We will continue to LIVE the DREAM for HIM!!

September 19, 1984 – August 19, 2009

Paul's love for soccer began at the age of 4 and played on this very field growing up. From that point he played continuously until high school and on many teams due to moves with the military.

Read the below Press Release:

WISC's New Turf Named in Honor of Local Fallen Soldier Paul Dumont Jr.